

---

"Disgust, Shame, Sexism, and Homophobia" with Dr. Martha Nussbaum

---

Faculty talk and Q&A presented in recognition of Sexual Assault Awareness
Month

Professor Martha C. Nussbaum will speak about her previous writing on the role of shame in law and public discourse, with a focus on issues of gender discrimination and homophobia. Professor Nussbaum is the Ernst Freud Distinguished Service Professor of Law and Ethics and most recently, author of Justice for Animals: Our Collective Responsibility.

Moderated by Vickie Sides, CARES Director of Education and Outreach. Vickie Sides is a violence prevention educator with over 20 years of experience in movements to end gender and power-based violence and oppression. Vickie serves as a Sexual Assault Dean-on-Call and member of the Bias Education Support Team.

---

Wednesday, April 19
12-1pm CDT
Live on Zoom

Register and learn more about
Sexual Assault Awareness Month
at cares.uchicago.edu

For accommodations requests, please email equalopportunity@uchicago.edu.